Dan Piraro first published his internationally syndicated comic feature, Bizarro, in 1986. He has also published fourteen books. Bizarro has won numerous awards including an unprecedented three consecutive "Best Panel" awards from the National Cartoonists Society. Since 2002, he has sporadically toured the U.S. with his one-man stand-up comedy show called "The Bizarro Bologny Show." The show's debut in the 2002 New York International Fringe Festival was voted "Best Solo Show," and The New York Times called it "...a shrewd tour of a cartoonist's imagination...wildly applauded."
